

SUNDAY SCHOOL REPORT
2009

As we reflect on another year of sharing God's love through our Sunday School, we offer a litany of thanks to the staff, students, parents, and congregation. We can't help but say, "God is good, and so are you!"

Leader: We give thanks...for a church that provides space and money for Christian education. Because of your faithful support, we have resources for preparing lessons and projects that engage our kids.

Teachers: God is good, and so are you!

Leader: We give thanks...that when we have a need, you are there to help. Last fall, when several teachers were out of town, Dirce, John and Jan filled in.

Teachers: God is good, and so are you!

Leader: We give thanks...that God has blessed us as we seek to plan lessons that lay a spiritual foundation to guide our kids and guard their hearts and minds as they grow. Last year they learned that the Ten Commandments are God's positive rules for living, and how to protect themselves with the armor of God.

Teachers: God is good, and so are you!

Leader: We give thanks...for the parents who faithfully bring their children to Sunday School. We are reaching 7 families beyond our membership. Our prayer is that the children and families we touch today will continue to grow and respond to Christ's call to discipleship.

Teachers: God is good, and so are you!

Congregation: Our worship is blessed when the children are involved. As they sing and share the Christmas story and other lessons, we see the fruit of your work. However, we seldom see the hours spent preparing lessons and crafts, or the challenges of working with a variety of age groups, learning styles and energy levels. We give thanks for the teachers who tithe their time and talents in Sunday School ministry. God is good, and so are you!

Teachers: Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; his love endures forever! (Ps. 107:1)

Unison: All praise to You, Lord Jesus, Lover of children: bless our church family, and help us to lead our children to you. Give us light and strength, and courage when our task is difficult. Let your Spirit fill us with love and peace, so that we may help our children to love you. All glory and praise are yours, Lord Jesus, forever and ever. Amen.
